Management report

CEO's Foreword

According to unaudited data, the Novaturas Group served 191 thousand travellers in 2025 and generated EUR 168 million in revenue. Compared with 2024, the number of travellers decreased by 20 percent and revenue declined by 16.1 percent. Despite lower volumes, the Group succeeded in achieving positive EBITDA.

Adjusted EBITDA in 2025 amounted to EUR 420 thousand, compared with negative EUR 449 thousand in 2024. Meanwhile, the annual net loss decreased by 39 percent to EUR 1.17 million, compared with EUR 1.92 million the year before last, excluding the one-off, non-cash impairment of goodwill amounting to EUR 5.7 million recorded at that time.

In 2025, we operated in an environment of intense competition and excess travel supply. However, our priority was clear: to increase profitability. We intentionally reduced volumes and optimised our travel programme, which led to a decline in revenue and the number of travellers carried, but enabled us to improve margins and operational efficiency. EBITDA was positive both in the second half of the year and for the full year. We had higher expectations for the second half; however, the increase in market-wide supply during the autumn season put pressure on prices. In addition, disruptions at Vilnius Airport related to illegal cross-border activity involving unmanned balloons reduced last-minute travel demand. All of this limited the final result.

Improved Efficiency

The improvement in profitability recorded last year was driven by a focused review of our programme, stricter supply discipline and enhanced efficiency. We reduced volumes on loss-making routes and placed greater emphasis on higher-margin destinations, leveraging Novaturas' broadest portfolio of destinations in the market.

One of the key efficiency indicators, aircraft load factor, increased by 1.5 percentage points in 2025 to 97.2 percent, compared with 95.7 percent in 2024. The strongest growth was recorded in the Estonian market, where load factor rose by 2 percentage points.

Load factors on long-haul destinations increased from 97.4 percent to 98.5 percent year on year, exceeding 99 percent in the second half of the year. A significant improvement was also achieved in ski destinations, where load factor rose from 90.5 percent to 97.2 percent.

Growing Destinations

The most popular summer destinations in 2025 remained Turkey, Greece, Spain, Bulgaria and Montenegro. In winter, Egypt, ski holidays and long-haul destinations were in highest demand.

Among the fastest-growing destinations last summer were the Calabria region in Italy, Barcelona and Madeira. During the winter season, ski trips to France attracted increased interest, while travel volumes to Egypt also grew in the second half of the year. Among long-haul destinations, the number of customers served increased most significantly for Zanzibar, Vietnam, Sri Lanka and Gambia.

Stronger Early Sales

Among the positive trends was a significant increase in early bookings last year. By December 2025, bookings for the 2026 summer season were 59 percent higher than in the previous year. The strongest growth in early sales was recorded for this year's trips to Greece, Bulgaria, Tunisia and Turkey.

In addition, this summer Novaturas is offering new destinations. We have introduced Morocco and also Mallorca from Lithuania and Estonia, while in Latvia this destination had already been available previously.

For 2026, we currently plan our travel programme at a similar or slightly higher level. Our objective is to continue delivering consistent profitability growth. To achieve this, we will focus on operational and cost efficiency, and we will expand our hotel portfolio by adding more attractively priced options to strengthen our competitiveness in the market.

Ieva Galvydienė, CEO of Novaturas Group

Geographic and other sales split information

The company's activities included tour organization and the distribution of tours through diversified and complementary distribution channels: a retail network of travel agencies and the company's own retail channels (own travel agencies, e-commerce sales, tickets only sales through the Global Distribution System (GDS)). The company works with over 400 travel agencies, including all the major agencies in the Baltics. E-commerce sales are via company websites.

The group sells flight tickets for its own organized charter flights via GDS, which means that Novaturas' charter tickets are available worldwide – to travel agents and to passengers directly via web portals for airline tickets.

The breakdown of sales by distribution (in percentage) channels was as follows:

Derivatives

The company operates as a tour operator. Due to its business specifics, the company is exposed to the risk of fluctuation in the price of aviation fuel and the EUR/USD foreign exchange rate. The company buys derivatives to protect itself against changes in aviation fuel prices (which affect fuel costs) and against changes in the EUR/USD exchange rate (which affects fuel costs) considering risks arising from future travels sold. When derivative positions are closed monthly, the realized result is accounted for in the income statement.

Open derivative contracts are treated as financial instrument which is revalued on monthly basis and change in contracts value is included in the income statement as unrealized income or loss.

The tables below present the results of closed derivative contracts and still-held contracts at period-end market value (in thousands of EUR):

Information about related party transactions

The Company's transactions with related parties are disclosed in the Notes to the Financial Statements.

Risk management

Credit risk

The Group's credit risk is relatively low as customers are required to pay for tours before the tours start. Besides that, credit limits are granted to the travel agencies that carry out most sales. The main purpose of the credit limits is to ensure timely payments. If a credit limit is exceeded, the Group's reservation system automatically blocks sales.

The Group partially prepays for travel services to its suppliers which are at a later stage offset against invoices payable for travel. Such prepayments are distributed to each hotel where the travel is booked thereby reducing credit risk exposure via disaggregation of credit risk exposure. Furthermore, as the Group pays hotel bills after travel commencement, an offset availability remains in case of credit default event.

The Group does not guarantee the obligations of other parties. The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset, including derivative financial instruments.

Interest rate risk

Group short-term borrowings (credit line) is linked to Euribor while long term financing is built on fixed interest rate. No financial instruments have been designated to manage the outstanding exposure to fluctuation in interest rates.

Foreign exchange / commodity price risk

The Group manages foreign exchange risk by contracting agreements in EUR, and functional currency of the subsidiaries in Latvia and Estonia is the EUR.

In December 2010, the Company began to use derivative financial instruments to reduce EUR/USD foreign exchange risk and fuel price variance risk. These risks are managed through the purchase of foreign exchange forward contracts and CIF NEW Cargoes contracts to hedge jet fuel price risk. As of 1 January 2014, the Group and the Company started to use derivatives for which hedge accounting applies. Since 1st January 2023 the Group ceased application of hedge accounting and accounts for realized results of derivative financial instruments through profit and loss. Unrealised value of derivatives is disclosed in these financial statements.

Liquidity management

The Group's policy is to maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents or have available funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet its commitments at a given date in accordance with its strategic plans. Liquidity risk is managed by planning the Group's cash flows.

Capital management

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to ensure that the all-group companies comply with externally imposed capital requirements and that the Group maintains healthy capital ratios to support the business and to maximize shareholders' value. (Capital in the meaning of IAS 1 consists of the equity presented in the financial statements.)

The Group manages its capital structure and adjusts it in the light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of activities. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may issue new shares, adjust the dividend payment to shareholders and/or return capital to shareholders.

The Company is obliged to maintain equity at no less than 50% of its share capital, as required by the Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania. External share capital requirements regarding the equity-to-asset ratio may also be imposed on the Company by banks.

Group companies assess capital using a ratio of total liabilities and equity. Companies' capital includes ordinary shares, reserves and retained earnings attributable to the equity shareholders of the parent company.
